Questions #001:

Q1: Are any stator coil drawings available for the preexisting set up of the (5000 HP) C4 motor? If yes, how can these be obtained/issued?

A1: NASA cannot positively confirm that the requested drawing(s) exist and therefore is not able to provide said drawings at this time. There may be an opportunity to perform an archival search following contract award that could potentially locate additional historical information and drawings on the C4 motor.

Q2: Are any drawings available for the (5000 HP) C4 rotor pole coils and the dovetail arrangement for the pole to the rotor spider? If yes, how can these be obtained/issued?

A2: NASA cannot positively confirm that the requested drawing(s) exist and therefore is not able to provide said drawings at this time. There may be an opportunity to perform an archival search following contract award that could potentially locate additional historical information and drawings on the C4 motor.
